Feedback:

Doesn't boost you up enough.

Need to push us more.

You don't get confidence from a book.

Only like sharing my learning with the teacher.

I like helping others.

It is helping me and helping me achieve my targets.

Suggestions:

Prefer to talk to teacher in private.

More discussion with teacher.

Don't do a target every week – perhaps every fortnight.

More of what I want to learn about.

Learn about how profiling helps you/are important.

Would like to work with another person when taking the lead with my learning.

Make them more interesting and fun.

Would like it to be clearer.

Discuss things more with classmates.

Read it with the teacher in class.

Better writing x2

Write our achievement in our profiles x3/ have a 'My Achievements' page – stick in photos and comments of what you've done.

Don't do targets.

Harder work.

Do something other than 'What's stuck with me' and targets

Practise talking in front of people

Don't have to share the learning in your profile – just tell the teacher.

Make it more colourful

Tell us why we are at this stage in our learning

Do a target every week

Change the 'All about me' and black line drawing regularly

Take it home more often

More drawings

Next steps:

- Assembly explaining profiles to the children.
- Order new files to save work in – improve quality of the profile.
- Agree next steps with Pupil Learning Council
- Look at changing format – perhaps 'What stuck with me' one week and 'Latest and Best' the next
- Include an achievement page (currently encouraged to add these in)
- Support children in talking together about their learning (raise confidence in supporting each other.)
