

Migration and how it benefits society

1st May 2019

Article 2

The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

Article 4

Governments must do all they can to make sure every child can enjoy their rights by creating systems and passing laws that promote and protect children's rights.

Article 6

Every child has the right to life.

Governments must do all they can to ensure that children survive and develop to their full potential.

Mika

Mika was born in Beirut to American parents, who were themselves born to Lebanese and Israeli parents. Mika and his family left Lebanon for Paris due to war. He was one at the time. Today, he lives in London.

M.I.A.

Pop star M.I.A was born in London, but then, aged one, moved with her family back to Sri Lanka, where her father campaigned for ethnic Tamils. Civil war forced her family to India, before they returned to London.

Saido Berahino

Berahino was forced to flee his native Burundi as a child. The West Brom striker received political asylum in Birmingham. He credits football with helping him integrate into British society.

Victor Moses

Moses, the Chelsea and Nigeria winger, was the son of a Christian pastor. His parents were killed when he was 11, so his wider family paid for him to come to the UK as an asylum seeker. He went to school in South London where he was scouted by Crystal Palace.
